

“Hope and Healing”

The 21st Annual Arizona Survivors of Suicide Day Conference
Saturday, August 6, 2022
8:00am—3:00pm

Desert Willow Conference Center
Phoenix, AZ

Our day will be focused on hope and healing, providing a forum for survivors to learn new coping skills and embrace their journey, and providing a forum for professionals to increase their knowledge about suicide bereavement.

Conference Speaker:

Stuart Smith, LPC
Clinical Coordinator:
Link Counseling Center
in Atlanta

Hosted by:

Conference Speaker

Stuart Smith is a licensed psychotherapist serving clients in the greater Atlanta area. In addition, Stuart is the Clinical Coordinator of the National Resource Center for Suicide Prevention and Aftercare at The Link Counseling Center in Atlanta.

His therapeutic work at The Link and his private practice is dedicated largely to grief work, relationships, and psychological growth. Stuart offers talks and workshops on a number of topics including how to provide support to those bereaved by suicide.
